ALLERGENS

Egg, sulphites; source notes possible traces of other allergens.

METHOD

1 STEP 1

Preheat oven to 220°C. Line 2 large oven trays with baking paper. Cut unpeeled potatoes into wedges, drizzle with 2 tbsp olive oil, season with salt and pepper, and roast, swapping trays halfway, for about 30 minutes or until tender.

2 STEP 2

Cut capsicums into 1cm chunks. Thinly slice spring onion, including the green part. Crush or finely chop garlic. Drain and rinse beans. Heat 2 tbsp olive oil in a large deep frypan over high heat; cook pork mince, breaking up lumps, for 3-4 minutes until browned. Remove from pan, leaving any oil behind.

3 STEP 3

Return pan to medium heat. Cook capsicum and garlic for about 5 minutes until softened. Add pork, beans, smoky barbecue seasoning, barbecue sauce and water. Bring to the boil and simmer for about 2 minutes until slightly thickened. Season to taste.

4 STEP 4

Transfer potato wedges to one oven tray. Spoon pork mixture over the wedges and bake for about 5 minutes or until warmed through.

5 STEP 5

Mix mayonnaise with 1 tbsp water; season with salt and pepper. Divide loaded wedges among bowls, drizzle with mayo sauce and scatter over spring onion.

6 STEP 6

Feed-a-crowd note from source: if mayonnaise is unavailable, use plain yoghurt instead.

BIG FLAVOUR. NO WORRIES.
