METHOD

1 STEP 1

Cook basmati rice in boiling water for about 12 minutes or until tender. Drain and keep covered and warm.

2 STEP 2

Thinly slice capsicums, discarding seeds. Coarsely chop tomatoes. Crush or finely chop garlic. Rinse and drain black beans.

3 STEP 3

Toss beef stir-fry with Tex-Mex seasoning and garlic. Heat a generous drizzle of olive oil in a large frypan over high heat and cook beef in batches for 1-2 minutes until browned. Remove from pan.

4 STEP 4

Reduce heat to medium-high. Cook capsicum in olive oil for about 3 minutes. Add tomato, black beans, tomato paste and 250ml (1 cup) water. Bring to a simmer, cover and cook about 3 minutes.

5 STEP 5

While the vegetable mixture cooks, chop the avocado flesh.

6 STEP 6

Return beef and resting juices to the vegetable mixture. Remove from heat; stir in red wine vinegar and sugar and season with salt and pepper. Divide rice and beef mixture among bowls, top with avocado and drizzle with extra virgin olive oil if desired.
