ALLERGENS

Contains egg and fish sauce; prawns are shellfish. Source card does not provide a formal allergen box; check current product labels.

METHOD

1 STEP 1

Mix all filling ingredients thoroughly until evenly combined. Refrigerate about 15 minutes. Fry a teaspoonful and taste to check seasoning before rolling.

2 STEP 2

Briefly wipe or dip one rice-paper sheet in warm water. Lay on a damp towel and wait just until pliable; do not soak.

3 STEP 3

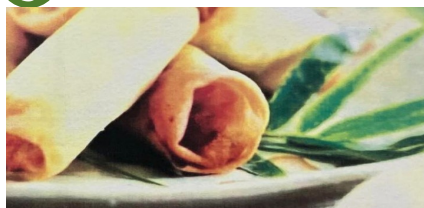

Place 1 heaped tablespoon filling near the lower third.

4 STEP 4

Fold in sides and roll firmly without squeezing so tightly that the wrapper splits. Keep rolls covered with a damp towel.

5 STEP 5

Heat about 5cm oil to 165-170°C. Fry in small batches for 7-9 minutes until crisp, blistered and cooked through. Pork filling must reach at least 71°C.

6 STEP 6

Drain on a wire rack. For extra crunch, cool about 10 minutes and fry again at 180°C for 1-2 minutes. Serve with lettuce, herbs and nuoc cham.

BIG FLAVOUR. NO WORRIES.
